

Amish Country, Gardens, Quilts & More in Northern Indiana!

August 21 – 25, 2022

Ready to travel? Interested in learning about Amish culture and seeing award winning gardens and quality quilts? Appreciate expert craftsmen and theaters? If so, then this tour is for you!

Travel via deluxe motor coach along the Yellow Brick Road to our first attraction, the Fireside Dinner Theatre in Ft Atkinson WI. Enjoy a delicious midday dinner followed by a delightful performance of the "The Wizard of Oz." Lodging for the night is at the Hampton Inn in Rockford, Ill. The next morning bypass Chicago enroute to northern Indiana's Amish Country where we spend the next 3 days visiting the Elkhart, Nappanee, Wakarusa, Middlebury & Shipshewana areas. Stay 3 nights in Middlebury at the lovely Essenhaus Inn.

Highlights of the tour include:

- See Quilt Gardens –15th yr celebration, a dozen quilt inspired gardens, millions of blooms
- Feast on a traditional Amish wedding dinner & hear about their customs in an Amish home
- Experience an Amish quilting bee & learn about Amish quilts and designs (or visit the farm)
- Travel scenic back roads as an Amish guide, shares her knowledge of the culture & area
- Visit a one-room school where the teacher discusses the educational program
- Meet an Old Order buggy maker, learn about the different buggies & churches
- Dine in another Amish home, observe a pie making demonstration
- Tour a wood shop and create a wooden quilt block to take home
- Attend the Shipshewana Flea Market & Auction - a Hoosier tradition
- Enjoy a fun theater production & buffet dinner at the Blue Gate. "Dear Soldier Boy"- a feel good Amish story- followed by dinner. And more...
